Five Head from Arkansas Are Landed in Seward County.

Anthorities Moving to Confine the Infeeted Animals and Will Kill Them if Necessary to Prevent Contagion.

LINCOLN. Sept. 10 .- (Special.) -- County Attorney J. J. Thomas of Seward county be sent to Germantown to look into the matter. If shipped out into the state the results without some higher authority. The diseased cattle are now in a pasture containing several sections of land. They were un-loaded a few days since from a Burlington train. Today the governor's private secretary, Renton Maret, held telephonic communication with County Attorney Thomas Dr. A. T. Peters of the State university was at the governor's office this afternoon and has been commissioned to proceed at once to Germantown. If considered necessary fo the protection of the interests of the state he will have the cattle killed. He says that should they be permitted to mingle with other cattle the whole state would be subject to an epidemic of Texas fever among Baron Addovon Sack Edlervon Mitzlaff of the German Grand cavalry and Baron Fred-eric von Levetzon Ehlerstoff of the Grand infantry were callers at the state capitol today, and under the chaperonage of Major Fechet. These are the young German sol diers, members of Emperor William's Royal guards, who are making a trip around the world on foot and without a cent of money. The trip is the result of a wager, although the amount of the same is not stated. They are likely to remain in Lincoln for severa days before they take up their line of march westward. Today they were very much in-terested in a mammoth reproduction of a painting of "Custer's Last Charge on the Little Big Horn," where he met his death. The picture represents the closing scenes of that carnage, showing the Indians in the act of removing scalps from dead and wounded soldiers. Both of the German offi-cers admitted that this was a feature of warfare to which they were not accustomed and appeared to be glad that such was the fact. LEMING'S BOOK STORE CLOSES.

This morning the extensive book and stationary firm of A. T. Leming & Co., with a large store at 1106 O street, and a warehouse at 1825 O street, closed its doors, giving chattel mortgages aggregating over giving chattel mortgages aggregating over $35,000. The mortgages are the following: W-W. Cook. $21,900; Old National bank of Cambridge, O., $2,500; Chemical National bank of New York, $9,000; First National bank of Lincoin, $1,643.66. Mr. Cook, the most extensive holder, is a resident of Ohio. The mortgages cover all the stock and fixtures, and they represent all but about $2,000 of the liabilities of the firm. The latter is composed of A. T. and Elijah Leming, and has been in business in this city for about twelve years. twelve years Lack of business incident to the prevailing hard times was the indirect cause of the failure, but the more direct cause was the pressure brought to bear upon the firm by the National Wall Paper company, one of the heaviest creditors. Two years ago the firm gave a mortgage to the wall paper company covering eighty acres of land east of the city of Lincoln. Six of the notes, aggregating $3,000, were due a short time since. The wall paper company began suit on the entire number of notes which amounted to over $30,060. This forced the local firm to the wall, and they decided to close up business.

FARMERS FAVOR IMPROVEMENTS. Movement Against Combining City and County Organizations Failing

ELKHORN, Neb., Sept. 10.-(Special.)-The ways and means committee appointed at a recent convention of Douglas county farmers adverse to the annexation scheme was scheduled to meet here yesterday and report progress. At 2:30 o'clock, when Chairman Avery rapped for order, the hall contained but thirteen people, and only three of that number were members of the wind-raising committee. After adopting the minutes of the previous meeting and allowing a local printer's bill of $41.59 for print ing circulars, etc., Gustav Kaessner, one of the Chicago precinct committeemen, submitted his report. He was sorry that he was unable to report better success. In his rounds he had only been able to se-cure the contribution of 25 cents to the fund. Many of the farmers throughout his district, he explained, "resisted" him, and expressed themselves as favoring the amendment to the constitution as Patrick McArdle of McArdle precinct reasserted that should the amendment carry at the polls that the Douglas county farmers taxes would increase three-fold. However, should the worst come to the worst he is satisfied the measure can be defeated in the surreme court.

Henry Bull of Chicago precinct was un able to secure any contributions to the fund. He related one instance where he approached a representative farmer and heavy taxpayer and was vigorously opposed. The farmer laughed at him and told him it was his opinion the organization he represented was working in the interests of an Elkhorn wet goods dealer. He resigned and William Hop per was appointed on the committee in his

Chairman Avery suggested that the various solicitors for funds be instructed to keep a list of the farmers called on, especially those who express themselves in favor of the proposed amendment. He is of the opinion that a list of all farmers favoring the scheme should be published later. Solicitor Theodore Stuhr of West Omaha precinct was not present but on the secretary's desk was a statement from him showing that he had received contributions to the fund to the arount of $7

Chairman Avery, in the course of a quite anti-annexation talk, explained that should the proposition carry farm owners throughout the county will be assessed for grading and paving the roads adjacent to their farms the same as property own ers in Omaha. Mr. Avery then jumied the track and branded as most despicable the underhand work of a few small-bore poli-ticians in their efforts to foist upon the people of the Third commissioner district man whom they had no use for. At this juncture some one in the hall suggested that the speaker stick to the text, or he would soon be discussing politics. He did not name the would-be commissioner.

SCARE A YOUNG CLERK TO DEATH Joseph Schutt Fatally Frightened by Burglars at Grand Island.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Sept. 10.-(Spe cial.)-Joseph Schatt, a young man of 20 years, a trusted employe of Fred Michelson, jeweler, was found dead in his bed, in a room at the rear of the store yesterday morning. While he had been suffering from rheumatism, there were circumstances which led to a coroner's investigation. The result was that a verdict placing the cause of death at rupture of the heart, sup-posedly resultant from fright, was reached. It is generally believed that some one tried to enter the store, and it frightened the young man to death. His revolver lay on a radiator nt the side of his cot. One cart-ridge had been discharged, and the bullet passed through the leg of a chair and struck the wall, where it was found. Mr. Michelson, the only other person who knows the combination of the vault, is in New York, but is expected to arrive home tomorrow, and until he returns to find the valuables in the vault, the fears of a few that Schatt was compelled to open the same, and close the doors after the rob-bers had made their exit, will probably not be allayed. There are no indications whatever that a single thing is missing, or that anyone entered the store.

RED MEN REFUSE TO CUT MILEAGE. Business of Importance to the Order Transacted at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 10 .- The great sun council of the Improved Order of Red Men devoted its morning session to the consideration of the finance committee's report. Its recommendation that a cut be made in mileage and per diem of the members was deage and per diem of the members was de-feated. It was agreed that state councils desiring to entertain the great sun council must extend the invitation two months be-fore the meeting. The recommendation that the semi-centennial be held in Philadelphia next year will not be acted on until tomor-row. It will doubtless be approved. The fund for the erection of a national home for aged and indigent Red Men was reported to have been increased to $3,345. A proposal to have blennial instead of an-nual sessions was referred to a committee.

A proposal to have blendal listead of annual sessions was referred to a committee.

The Red Men yesterday afternoon held their election of officers, which resulted as follows: Great incohonee, Judge Robert E. Daniel of Griffin, Ga.; great senior sagamore George E. A number of former Red Men, now residents in Canada, have made overtures to the council looking toward the introduction of the order in the Dominion. This move, however, is not favorably received by the council, its members declaring that the or-der is distinctly American and cannot enter Canada except in case of annexation. It is probable that the council will not be able to finish its business before tomorrow night.

The action of the Board of Education 15cently in removing Member F. O. Olsen streets today. He had committed suicide from the committees on buildings and grounds and judiciary, without giving any ent to the hotel and registered as William reason, has caused considerable talk about town. Ever since the organization of the new board in July last there has been more or less dissatisfaction in regard to the makeup of the different committees. At the meeting in July, when the new members took their seats, an organization was perfected and officers sleeted and commit tees appointed, which action the minutes show was unanimously confirmed by the members. It was then decided to investigate the finances of the board, but on ac count of the new secretary not having yet given bonds the matter had to be deferred. A special meeting was called in a day or two, and the previous action in regard to appointing the committees was reconsidered and an entire new list was presented and confirmed. Olsen alone voting against the confirmation. Mr. Olsen, now asserts that the action of the board was illegal, and his removal from the committees on build-ings and grounds and judiciary he considers a direct insult, and he has written The Bee as follows in regard to the matter:

"I claim that the appointment of the second set of committees was illegal, my authority for this statement being Judge Duffle, the attorney for the board. I was removed from the chairmanship of the committee on buildings and grounds without cause. President Shupp stated that he had reasons for making the change, but refused to state them and refused to make any explanation. I do not think his ac-tions were gentlemanly to insuit a member of the board who has served as long as have, or any member, for that matter, and then be cowardly enough to refuse to make an explanation of his actions. I am not afraid to receive any explanation, as my actions have all been honorable. I am still serving on one committee, and am not yet, as has been stated, an honorary mem-ber of the board."

SHUTTING DOWN ON CREDITS Grocers Send Out a Circular to Al

Their Customers. A meeting of the Retial - Grocer's association of Omaha was held last evening at the rooms of the Commercial club for the further consideration of the question of credits. The importance of the matter in hand brought out a full attendance and the whole subject was gone over in a most thorough manner. The secretary reported that the dead beat list had grown steadily during the past two weeks and now contains the names of 500 people who make a practice of never paying their grocery bills. In addition to the dead beats who never pay, there are a large number of people who have made it a practice to delay the payment of their bills, com-yond the time when the bills should have been paid. A prominent grocer remarked that when some of the oldest and best grocers in the city had been forced into bankruptcy wing to their inability to collect accounts double-deck cars of sheep to this it was time to call a halt in the matter of extending credits. "We must have our money when it is due or go out of business," was the way he expressed it, and his viewa seemed to meet with general approval, as it was unanimously voted to send out the following letter to all customers, both good and bad pay:

and bad pay:

Inasmuch as we are now compelled to pay the bulk of our bills weekly, or be placed upon the "blacklist," thereby being forced to pay absolutely spot cash for our goods, we do not think it more than justice to ourselves if we require our customers to pay their bills to us promptly upon the first of each month, and not ask nor expect us to carry them for any part of the account.

We are simply grocers, not loan agents, and we trust that we shall not be compelled to tell any of our customers that "we must have more money or less business." We are well aware that we all have heavy burdens to bear these times, but the grocer's is always heavier than others, because he has to bear part of the burden of many of his customers, and at the end of the year he often finds himself with all his year's profits in a lot of old, uncollected accounts.

We again beg to call our customers' at-

We again beg to call our customers' attention to the fact that all bills are due the first of each month and must be paid with reasonable promptness on or before the tenth of the month, or credit will be discontinued. Payment in the way indicated will be to our mutual advantage, as with bills promptly paid us, we can afford to keep a better, fresher stock, and sell at closer prices than when we sell on indefipile time.
